Mr Fox and Mr crow

One day Mr Fox was walking through the forest. He was feeling hungry for he had not had any breakfast. He looked all round to see what he could find to eat but he did not see anything then when he was going past a big tree he smelt a lovely smell what was it? It was the smell of cheese!

Mr Crow is singing
He ~~eh~~ dropped the cheese
Mr Fox is eating it

Mr crow has gone home
The cheese is in Mr Fox's tummy
